School Problems Still Unsolved In Saanich

Problems of school accommodation facing trustees of Saanich School District (No. 63) were not solved on Saturday when ratepayers of the school district, by a large majority, refused to sanction the school loan referendum.

Of the votes cast in the poll, 60 per cent were opposed to the plan and 40 per cent supported it. This was approximately a reversal of the position needed to gain approval. Saanich municipality presented a different picture from the remainder of the district. In Saanich 57 per cent of votes cast were in favor of the construction. This would have been insufficient to implement the program even if the remainder of the district had followed suit.

Many ratepayers expressed opposition to the expense involved, urging that the costs were out of proportion to the structures envisaged. Others contended that the present system of administering school costs would never be changed if ratepayers consistently approved construction of schools.

Spoke Against

Reeve Sydney Pickles had spoken against the referendum last week. He urged that if the school district was to be faced with a reduction in size due to the withdrawal of Saanich, then it was a poor time to proceed with further commitments. Reeve Pickles also asserted that the referendum gave unlimited powers to the school board and that such authority was not to be granted without careful consideration.

Largest turnout and largest proportion of voters was recorded in North Saanich, where 852 votes were cast of a total of 2,099 eligible. This represented slightly less than a 41 per cent vote. A 38 per cent vote was recorded in Central Saanich when 418 of 1,111 eligible voters attended the polls. Lowest turnout was in Saanich, where only 31 per cent of voters cast a ballot. Of the 2,109 voters on the list only 649 attended.

In Central Saanich only 33 per cent of the votes cast supported the referendum. The figure was even lower in North Saanich, where only 31 per cent of voters turning out supported the project.

Poll-by-poll results are as follows:

North Saanich

	Yes	No
Sidney	106	261
North Saanich	29	63
Deep Cove	62	113
McTavish Road	26	101
Sansbury	43	50

Central Saanich

	Yes	No
Brentwood	58	123
Saanichton	15	85
Keating	59	59
Mount Newton	8	11

Saanich

	Yes	No
Cordova Bay	143	120
Prospect Lake	81	43

Returning Officer John W. Ismay stated that no incidents occurred during voting and that early in the count the result was clearly evident. Counting was completed and the result announced within half an hour of the closing of the polls.

New Unit For Power Company

Annual general meeting of Galiano Light and Power Co. Ltd., was held on Wednesday, May 26, at the company office.

Directors were re-elected en bloc with Fred E. Robson, president; O. J. Garner, vice-president; Mrs. A. E. Scoones, secretary-treasurer; directors, B. P. Russell, Fred Clunness, R. Gamman and Ernest Lorenz.

Profits were doubled during the past year and the company is to purchase a new Gardner diesel engine which will enable them to double the number of users. There are several homes now wired for power, which will be served.

Haven't Seen It Yet Good Samaritans Perplexed

A pair of North Saanich Good Samaritans are today wondering whether or not it pays to help their fellow man.

R. D. Murray and Capt. M. D. A. Darling of Deep Cove drove northward towards Nanaimo on Wednesday last to visit the Harmac pulp mill on a tour arranged by Central Saanich Chamber of Commerce. The latter's expensive camera lay on the back seat of the car.

Near Duncan they picked up a hitch-hiker who "thumbed" a ride. The unknown traveller was considerably inebriated and his speech was somewhat incoherent. He mumbled that he intended to catch a ferry at Nanaimo and sail for Vancouver.

No Camera!

The motorists let out their passenger where the road turns off to Harmac. He muttered his thanks and departed aloof. On arrival at Harmac, Capt. Darling discovered that his camera was missing.

Capt. Darling and Mr. Murray sped to Nanaimo and reported the theft to the R.C.M.P. A search was launched. The two motorists looked around the district themselves then returned to their homes at Deep Cove. By the time they arrived, the police had telephoned to say that camera and hitchhiker had both been apprehended. They were asked to report to Nanaimo police court on Thursday while the case was heard by the magistrate.

The two drove to Nanaimo on the following day, only to hear the case remanded for a week. Sorrowfully they returned to their homes and readied themselves for another trip northwards when the case is finally heard.

Despite all the problems and expense entailed by their kindly act, they still haven't seen the Harmac plant.

UNDERGROUND CABLE IS LAID

Employees of B.C. Telephone Co. are carrying out an extensive program in connection with an underground cable adjoining Patricia Bay Airport. The job requires the digging of a large number of holes along the highway in the vicinity of the airport.

The Review is informed that the cable extension from the airport to Swartz Bay, at which point the marine cable to Vancouver starts, will improve the long distance telephone service between Victoria and Vancouver.

ISLAND MERCHANT SIDNEY VISITOR

E. Pritchard, South Pender Island merchant, was a Sidney visitor on Tuesday, travelling here by launch. Because no regular boat service now stops at South Pender, Mr. Pritchard made arrangements for necessary supplies to be delivered to him regularly by launch from Sidney.

REMANDED

Sidney Jackson, Centre Road, appeared on a charge of intimidation in Sidney R.C.M.P. court on Saturday. The case was remanded to Saturday by Magistrate F. J. Baker.

New Paint Job

Depicted above is Pender Island United Church, resplendent in a new coat of paint. The church was repainted last month, when a group of volunteers were busy painting the church inside and out. Sparking the project was George Pearson, who asked for volunteers to aid the paint job. Paint was donated by Percy Corbett, genial island storekeeper. Next service, on Sunday, June 6, will see the first service in the newly decorated structure. Assisting in the work were Elmer Bowerman, Max Allen, Jim Morrison, Henry Hopper, Victor Menzies, Mr. Knechtel, Mr. McLennan, W. Murray, R. Wilson, Norman Millar, Mrs. Stella Bowerman, Mrs. Dave Dennis, Mrs. Ray Brackett and Mrs. Scott.

NEW SUMMER SERVICE IS LAUNCHED

Summer ferry service of the C.P.R., linking Vancouver and Sidney, was inaugurated on Tuesday of this week when the Ss. Princess Elaine arrived shortly before 6 p.m. She had stopped at two island ports en route. The ship will make the voyage daily until September.

Capt. O. J. Williams of Sidney, general manager of B.C. Coast Steamships, was a passenger on the inaugural run and proceeded to his home on Beaufort Road.

She Recalled Great Fire Of Vancouver

Native daughter of British Columbia, Mrs. Emma Publicano passed away in Rest Haven Hospital on Sunday, May 30, after a long illness.

Mrs. Publicano, widow of Charles Publicano, was born in Matsqui Prairie 88 years ago and had spent all her life in B.C. She could tell many stories of the early history of the province, and was in Vancouver at the time of the great fire.

She is survived by her brother, Joseph Hale; also nieces and nephews.

She had lived at West Saanich Road, Deep Cove, for the past five years.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, June 3, at 2 p.m. in Cline Funeral Chapel, Sidney. Rev. Dr. J. B. Rowell, of Victoria officiating. Interment will be made in Colwood Burial Park.

Showers Dampen Ardor Of Fulford Day Visitors

Despite clouds and showers, which prevailed during a considerable part of the day, the annual sports festival at Fulford on May 24 attracted a large crowd of spectators.

The fête opened at 1 p.m. when a parade of decorated floats featured a children's fancy dress parade. Judging the parade were Col. and Mrs. J. Bryant, of Fulford.

Highlight of the afternoon was the crowning of May Queen Valerie Hollings, daughter of Mrs. Fred Hollings, of Fulford. Accompanied by her attendants, Sharon Irwin, Sylvia Wagg, Susan Alexander.

New Officers For Social Credit Unit

Social Credit Group, No. 3, on Salt Spring Island, held its regular meeting on May 20 in the Mahon Hall, Ganges, with the president, E. J. Avery, in the chair.

Owing to the resignation, through ill health, of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Newham, as secretary and treasurer respectively, Mrs. J. Catto was elected treasurer by acclamation and Mrs. I. D. Fletcher, secretary.

The possibility of securing a tape recorder for future meetings was considered and it was proposed that some future meetings be held in other parts of the Island to give more of the members an opportunity to attend.

OVERPARKING

E. Radies, Patricia Bay, was fined $5 and $5.50 costs for overparking at Patricia Bay Airport when he appeared before Magistrate F. J. Baker in Sidney R.C.M.P. court on Saturday.

Good Day For Blood Bank

Despite the fact that the blood donor clinic staged in Sidney on Thursday failed to achieve the target contemplated, general satisfaction was expressed with the standard achieved.

Total number of donors was 233. Target was 300. Of localities in the lower Vancouver Island area, Sidney came closest to the target set.

A slow afternoon gave way to a busy evening. During the afternoon 94 visitors gave blood and during the evening 139 attended.

Red Cross officials stated that the clinic will definitely repeat its visit next year. Clinic was staged in the K.I.P. Hall on Fourth St. and a large number of the residents of the area served with the Red Cross officials. Donors came from North Saanich and Central Saanich and transportation was offered to Salt Spring Islanders travelling aboard the Cy. Peck.

Satisfied With Result Of Vote

To The Review on Monday, Reeve Sydney Pickles of Central Saanich municipality expressed his satisfaction with the manner in which ratepayers of Saanich School District dealt with the school building referendum last Saturday.

"I was impressed by the way in which the ratepayers decisively expressed their attitude regarding this particular by-law," he said.

"The advocates of its support sent out through the mail two anonymous circulars which were obviously designed to stampede the voters into supporting it on emotional grounds. The public should be definitely informed by the school board if it has any knowledge as to the identity of the persons responsible for sending out these circulars. It has been freely rumored that it was the school board which authorized the issuance of these circulars out of school board funds. If this is the case, it is, in my view, a serious misuse of public moneys in connection with advocacy for support from the voters of a referendum and a full investigation should be made to establish the facts regarding these circulars. Taxpayers' money should not be used for propaganda purposes under the guise of disseminating information, as many opponents of the plan have been obliged to contribute to these funds through taxation."

Discriminatory Mr. Pickles made it clear that he is not opposed in any way to sensible expenses on education but it is the dissatisfaction which exists regarding extravagance and the definite knowledge that a less discriminatory method of financing should be adopted, which would eliminate the discriminatory school tax load carried by the property owners, which is troubling the voters.

Banker

I. M. STEWART

New manager at the Bank of Montreal's Ganges branch is Ian M. Stewart, who has been a credit officer at the assistant general manager's department, Vancouver, for the past year and a half. He succeeds Howard J. Chalk, who becomes manager at the bank's Lower Capilano office.

Born at Edmonton, Mr. Stewart joined the B. of M. at Ponoka, Alta., in 1931. After serving at several branches mainly in Quebec and Alberta, he was appointed accountant at the Homer and Hastings streets office, Vancouver, in 1950.

During the second World War, Mr. Stewart served with the Royal Canadian Armoured Corps and was wounded in Italy.

Married, Mr. Stewart has two young daughters, Susan and Anne, and a baby son, Michael.

Mr. Chalk, who has managed the Ganges branch since 1952, participated in many community activities. During the past year he served as president of the Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce and was vice-chairman of the Lady Minto Gulf Islands hospital board of directors.

COMPLEX PROBLEM

Ferry problem in this district continues to grow more complex. The C.P.R. has announced that it has no intention of starting a fast ferry service to link the Saanich Peninsula with Vancouver.

The Black Ball Line, news reports suggest, may be interested in acquiring Gulf Island Ferry Co. and inaugurating an island service from Swartz Bay. Coast Ferries Ltd. were almost denied use of the federal wharf at Steveston, springboard for their service now linking the mainland with the islands. A "stay of execution" has been arranged to permit the company to make other arrangements.

The ferry situation is extremely "fluid" at present. Further developments will be awaited by the scores on the Islands and Peninsula who are most affected.

WILL ATTEND BANFF PARLEY

Mrs. Evelyn E. Stehlar, R.N., matron Dr. Francis Hospital, Ganges, and Elizabeth M. Layton, R.N., public health nurse, Ganges, leave Vancouver June 5 en route to Banff to attend the Canadian Nurses Association 27th biennial convention, which is being held at the Banff Springs Hotel, June 7-11. ## STRENGTH LIES IN ASSOCIATION

Four guest speakers from Vancouver Island points addressed the recent inaugural meeting of a ratepayers' association on Salt Spring Island. The meeting was held at Mahon Hall with Jake Barker in the chair.

George Windlow gave a history of the Vancouver Island Ratepayers' Association and stressed the fact that as an individual one couldn't get very far with either government or municipalities, but as a group the individuals command a great deal of respect.

He spoke of the school taxes at Saltara, then of the stormy meeting at Kamloops, which finally resulted

Village Debentures Fetch Big Premium

—Handsome Profit

Canada's financial houses have great faith in the future of the Village of Sidney. This was proven last Saturday when bids were opened for the $190,000 debentures which the village is selling to finance its major sewer construction project this summer. Top bid was $103.11, a handsome premium which gives the village a bonus of approximately $5,800 on the transaction.

Bids Opened

The debentures, carrying an interest rate of 3 3/4 per cent, were purchased by A. E. Ames & Co., Ltd. When bids were opened in the village hall on Saturday morning, representatives of a number of financial houses were present.

Other bids were as follows: Pemberton Securities, $102.78; Jas.

Richardson & Sons, Ltd., $102.45; Thos. B. Read Co., Ltd., $101.807; McLeod, Young & Weir Co., Ltd., $101.55; Gillespie Hart Co., Ltd., $100.70.

Call Tenders

Meanwhile the village has called for tenders for the supplying of pipe and other materials for construction of the sewer service. Tenders will be received up to noon on Monday, June 7.

Final plans have now been received from the Vancouver engineering firm which will supervise the construction job. Tenders are invited for the construction project. It is hoped to have the job completed before the end of the year.

Plan To Alleviate Post Office Congestion

Canada's post office authorities are fully aware that the lobby of the Sidney post office is small and it is planned to rectify this situation. This is the assurance of W. J. Turnbull, deputy postmaster-general.

Some months ago, as a result of complaints voiced by a Sidney businesswoman, The Review carried an editorial pointing out that congestion was frequent in the lobby of the Sidney post office. Mr. Turnbull promised to make an investigation.

As a result of the survey launched by the deputy postmaster-general, a delegation of Sidney businessmen interviewed a postal inspector in Victoria, pressing for a substantial addition to the Sidney post office. The delegates were promised that a careful investigation would be made.

The Reply

The following letter came this week from Mr. Turnbull:

"This refers to my letter of the 3rd March, 1954, regarding an editorial which appeared in the Saanich Peninsula and Gulf Islands Review concerning the conditions which obtain at the Sidney post office.

HARMAC TOUR IS ENJOYED LAST WEEK

Sponsored by the Central Saanich Chamber of commerce, a very successful tour to the Harmac pulp plant of MacMillan and Bloedel Ltd., a short distance south of Nanaimo, was made on Wednesday last.

The tour was headed by Harry Peard, president of the Chamber, and G. R. Smith, of Brentwood, secretary. Included in the group were Councillors W. W. Michell and P. F. Warren of Central Saanich Municipality. Several members of the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce accompanied the party.

First War Veteran Is Called By Death

Last rites were observed on Monday from Thomson Funeral Home, when Rev. D. Kendell officiated. Interment followed in the Veterans' Cemetery.

WATER BOARD IS RAPPED

Brentwood Waterworks District came in for a sharp rap on the knuckles from Central Saanich Chamber of Commerce on Thursday last week. Residents of Brentwood who had contributed time, material and property for the comfort station adjacent to Johnson's Garage, expressed severe disapproval of the action of the waterworks board in refusing to supply free water for the station.

Strongest opposition was made by Mr. Johnson. He stated that the waterboard offered to double his allowance of water for the comfort station, which is on his property. Should the use of facilities increase and a greater quantity of water be consumed, he will be responsible for paying it, explained Mr. Johnson.

The Chamber will urge the water board to reconsider its decision and to allow a free water supply to the public convenience.

Materials were supplied free of charge by Butler Bros. The property is given over for the purpose by Mr. Johnson and work has been carried out without pay by Brentwood residents.

OLD WHARF NOW JUST A MEMORY

Venerable old wharf erected more than 20 years ago at Swartz Bay has been demolished. Thousands of cars travelled over this wharf to embark or disembark from the ferry Cy Peck which links Swartz Bay with Fulford Harbor on Salt Spring Island.

The old wharf was in continuous use until recent weeks when the new wharf, immediately west of the existing structure, was put into service.

J. J. White Addresses Men's Club At Sidney Church Hall

A meeting of St. Paul's A.O.T.S. Club, Sidney, was held on Tuesday, May 25, in the church hall; present were 22 members and guests.

An excellent supper was provided by the Sunshine circle of the W.A., which was acknowledged by M. A. White in a suitable vote of thanks. There was a short period of community singing, under the leadership of Frank Aldridge after which the president called for the minutes of the last meeting, which were read by the secretary and adopted on motion of W. D. McLeod.

J. J. White, an old-time resident of Sidney for over 60 years, was then very fittingly introduced by the Rev. W. Buckingham; and from 7.15 to 8.15 Mr. White gave the meeting a particularly fitting and suitable address on the early history of Sidney. He spoke of some of the early settlers and residents, the coming of the various railways, the finding of the present Sidney water supply, the arrangements for the location here of the Army camp during the First World War, the origin of the name of Sidney.

Mr. White invited questions, and during his address, questions were fired at him from all sides. At 8.15 Mr. Beesley moved a vote of thanks—saying that to a comparatively newcomer this address of Mr. White's was particularly interesting.

At 8.25 W. D. McLeod moved adjournment, and benediction was pronounced by the hon. president, Rev. W. Buckingham.

NORMAN WEST ENTERTAINS ROTARIANS

Sidney Rotarians were entertained on Wednesday last week by Norman West, manual arts teacher at North Saanich high school. Mr. West, armed with a projector, showed a film on the Okanagan Valley. He was introduced by Eddie Eng, upon whose invitation he was present.

Chairman V. C. Dawson stated that the month's attendance during April stood at 93.4 per cent, higher than the district average.

George Hafer, who had spent a period in Rest Haven Hospital, was welcomed back and R. E. Gile attended after a holiday in Texas and Minnesota.

Frank Stenton, presenting the Penny Pageant, gave a recitation, "Early Morn".

FIRST BANQUET IS MARKED SUCCESS HERE

All thoughts of Bach or Elgar were erased from the minds of the members of the Sidney-North Saanich Musical Society, as they sat down with their guests, to the delicious chicken dinner served at their first annual banquet in the Hotel Sidney, May 25.

The members were very pleased to have their honorary patrons as their guests, and following the dinner were introduced by Mrs. Kitty Greenhill. Among these, Mrs. G. R. Pearkes, Mrs. J. J. White, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rivers were present. Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, J. J. White, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Nikola Pavelic, were unfortunately, unable to attend.

The members also had as their special guests, Commander F. D. Till and Mrs. Till, Deeper Cove; Mr. and Mrs. Eric V. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. L. Painter, of Victoria. Following the introductions, Jack Boshier, newly-elected president, complimented Mrs. Greenhill on her splendid efforts in the past season and presented her, on behalf of the society, with a lovely gift of a Staffordshire china floral bouquet.

Mrs. Grace Beswick then introduced Mr. Edwards, as the speaker for the evening. Mr. Edwards spoke on the interesting history and formation of the musical society, seven years ago. Looking forward to the future, Mr. Edwards said that the choir must not be content, but be determined to keep improving the standards. Interesting plans are in formation for next season, and the hope is for the performance of the Peasant Cantata by Bach.

BEST PRODUCTION TO DATE IS ENJOYED BY LOCAL PLAYGOERS

Sparked by the performance of a group of excellent players the production of Peninsula Players last week-end "Quiet Week-end", was notable for the improved standard exhibited by the entire cast. While a number of players had gained confidence since earlier productions all exhibited a fluidity which had been missing in previous instances in the past. Several in fact in North Saanich high school auditorium on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Muriel Smith, Patricia Gray, Jean Christie and Joan Henriksen all drew the spontaneous applause of the audience during the course of the play.

Backbone of the performance was undoubtedly contributed by Ailsa Rothery and Eve Gray, whose portrayal of mater familias and quiet spinster, respectively, were beyond criticism. They were supported by John Gray, as the lady's husband and Larry Scardfield as the suitor. The two men maintained a steady pace, consisting of keeping quiet and holding their parts in many stages.

Improved
A much-improved Patricia Gray played the role of Miranda, who had almost grown up, but was yet allied to the schoolroom. Her performance was excellent.

Jim Brent and his wife were Jim Elliott and Muriel Smith. Both players have proven themselves in the past and lived up to expectations. Joan Henriksen cultured an uncultured accent for the occasion and was amusing and effective.

David Smart showed a considerable improvement over his last performance.

SCOUT and CUB NOTES

On Friday, May 28, the Saanich-ton Cub Pack was delighted to entertain the executive commissioner, Freeman King and the Victoria District Akela, Mrs. G. Bennett.

After doing some training for their Cub rally, which is to be held at the Heywood Ave. ball park the boys gathered around Mrs. Bennett for their opening ceremonies.

Then to the delight of the Cub Pack the new akela, Mrs. S. Fisher was invested as their leader and given her official badges and pin. Several pictures of the group were taken, then Commissioner King called all the boys together in a circle. Mrs. Bennett led Mrs. Mills into the centre then the boys surpassed themselves in a "grand howl" as a farewell to their former leader.

In the fall Mrs. Mills will be on call in an advisory capacity to Mrs. Fisher, the official akela. The pack is very sorry to have Shirley Polson leave. She has given two years of faithful service as ballou of the pack.

SCHOOL BUILDING PROGRAM

IT'S a little difficult to assess the result of the voting last Saturday on the referendum to provide new classrooms for schools of Saanich school district. Ratepayers rejected the plan by a substantial majority.

As The Review said last week, the problem was an easy one to understand. School trustees are elected by the ratepayers to provide educational facilities for children. Because the numbers of children is increasing at a substantial rate, new classrooms are required. The trustees assessed the schoolroom need for the foreseeable future and asked the ratepayers to endorse a plan to erect more schools on the understanding that the provincial government would pay half the capital outlay. The ratepayers thought it over very carefully and democratically said "No".

Now we don't believe for one moment that the people of Saanich Municipality, Central Saanich Municipality and North Saanich are opposed to the education of children. But they are irate at some facets of the present educational system and took this means of voicing their displeasure. Some voters feel that educational costs are much too high, that teachers are overpaid, that too many subjects are taught and that the curriculum should stress the Three R's and not "frills". Whether this is a just criticism of the educational system or not, these matters lie solely within the jurisdiction of the department of education and are not dictated by the elected school trustees at all.

Just what the board of trustees can do to solve the problem now is not immediately apparent. The need for classrooms still exists and the ratepayers have refused the trustees permission to build them.

A move now underway to attempt to divide the school district into different sections did not increase the affirmative vote on the referendum at all. The plan, apparently, would see schools in Saanich Municipality attached to Greater Victoria School District, leaving Central Saanich, James Island and North Saanich in a school district by itself. The plan may be a good one. Or it may not, The Review does not pretend to know. But we feel that the proposal should not be made effective unless two questions are answered clearly: (1) Would the division of the school district provide better education for the children?; and (2) Would taxpayers pay less for education under the new plan? The answers to these questions should be provided by educational authorities without delay.

Another factor which increased the "No" vote on the referendum was undoubtedly perplexity in the public mind as to what the new "Williston formula" for paying the costs of education will provide. If it is going to lift a large part of the tax burden, this district would have been foolish to contract a heavy load of debt. The sooner the government clears the air and explains the new formula, the better for everyone concerned.

The percentage of voters who took the trouble to go to the polls was disappointingly low. Two-thirds of the ratepayers, apparently, didn't care a tittle what happened. The fact that the percentage of voters who went to the polls in North Saanich was higher than in either Central Saanich or Saanich shows that the public in the northern area takes a greater interest in education generally than do its neighbors to the south.

SUPPORT IS NEEDED

FOR many years the construction of a community hall in Sidney has been mooted. At different times in the past various groups have supported the move and a drive has been made towards that goal. Such drives have been spasmodic and have rarely survived the initial stages of enthusiasm nursed by a few.

The formation of Sanscha two years ago marked the beginning of the end. At no time previously had so enthusiastic and determined a group undertaken the campaign for a local hall.

Gesture of the North Saanich War Memorial Park Board in handing over the promotion of Sidney Day to the new committee has not passed unnoticed. It was a commendable move in view of the fact that the board has voluntarily given away more than $500 to the hall association.

Support of the public has been strong. The organizers are still seeking further support. They look for continued sale of tickets for the draw prize of a new car and for the handling of various tasks on Sidney Day. This is the opportunity for the residents of this district to prove that they are all wholly behind the association in its drive for a hall this year. Sanscha needs your support.

Letters To The Editor

A COMPLIMENT

Editor, Review,
Sir:
The policy of The Review in giving wholehearted support to every worthwhile endeavor within the district it covers is noteworthy and commendable.

Having enjoyed the full measure of your co-operation, and realizing the value of such publicity, the Sidney-North Saanich Musical Society extends sincere thanks for your generous support, which added immensely to the success of the season recently concluded.

In expressing the appreciation of the Musical Society, may I add my personal thanks to you and your staff, who have made my task as publicity convener during the past season a most pleasant one.

Wishing The Review continued success.

PUBLICITY FOLDERS

Editor, Review,
Sir:
We, the publicity committee of the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce want to inform the general public that all business people whose names are listed in our tourist folders helped to finance the folders.

There are about 3,000 more to be printed. Now anyone who wishes that his business name be added, should contact the following: A. M. Dore, Sidney Hotel; Bob Shade, Sidney Freight; R. E. Gille, Van Isle Marine; or Joe Bilgeri. These are the proper persons to contact.

True, we missed asking some people, but some were contacted, they refused to help to finance the folders, and now, because their name is not listed, they complain about it. We will be glad to add their name on the next 3,000 folders, if we have the money to do so. So please contact us as soon as possible.

JOE BILGERI,
Sidney, B.C.,

BLOOD CLINIC

Editor, Review,
Sir:
After the recent appeal by the Sidney P-T-A to everyone to support the Red Cross blood donor clinic, I feel a comment is called for.

A hearty "thank you" to the wonderful 239 people who donated a precious pint of blood. A special "thank you" also to the many others who came to the clinic, but were turned down for one reason or another. You were willing and ready to help, and no one can do more. Many thanks also are due to the many who Alford defeated Salt Spring Island Golf Club on Thursday, playing for the J. J. White cup. Members of the successful team were A. Deidall, H. Davis, J. C. Anderson, J. McIlraith, C. W. Gamble, R. Gore-Langton, Rev. J. S. A. Bastin, Rev. T. M. Hughes and H. L. Witherby. The Salt Spring players were D. K. Crofton, D. G. Crofton, W. Evans, C. Morris, J. McIlraith, G. Crofton, C. Springfield, T. F. Speed, L. Elliott, V. Casemorris and Rev. G. Aitkens.

A large number of visitors appeared at Mayne Island over the Victoria Day Holiday. Miss Vera Robson and Elliott Robson were among arrivals. They spent a few days with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Chamberlain, of New Westminster, were guests during the past week of Mrs. Chamberlain's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Auchterlonie, Hope Bay, Pender Island.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McLeod are leaving Saturna, where they have made their home for some years. They will in future reside in Sidney.

Opening day for Harbour House Tennis Club took place at Ganges on Friday. Among the visitors marking the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Halley, Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Crofton, Dr. and Mrs. R. Rush, Mrs. Jack Abbott, Mrs. C. Butterfield, Mrs. Raymond Morris, Misses I. Davy, D. Moorehouse, Betty Halley, Nora Turner, Betty helped to promote the drive.

But, the response was disappointing. With the thousands of residents on the Peninsula and surrounding islands, what a let-down to have only 239 pints donated. Counting out the children, the over-age group, allowing more than half as medically unfit, there should have been between 500 and 1,000 donors attend the clinic.

Why is there such apathy in this district? Is it too much trouble to come even when transportation is provided? Is everyone so busy that they can't spare the necessary half-hour? Are they such a bunch of faint-hearted sissies that the thoughts of a quick jab of a needle is too much for them? Oh yes, I know there are those that will tell you they "felt all tired out the next day", but I'm sure there have been other days when they have felt much worse and from a less worthy cause. And what of our young people, those just over 18 and full of vim and vigor? Are they so sure they will never need a transfusion that they can afford to say, "Aw, to heck with that, why should I give blood?"

Many of the "first-time" donors were heard to remark, "I'd have come before if I had known that's all there was to it". To those new donors, and to all those who attended the clinic, may we again say thank you. To those who refused to come through fear or a don't-care attitude, may I sincerely hope that they will never be in need of a transfusion, and denied it because there is none available.

In step with time, costs likewise march on. The hundred-year-old courthouse at Goderich cost $4,000 to build, was latterly insured for $75,000, and now, destroyed by fire, will be replaced by a $500,000 building.

The Review's Book Review

"The Bridge of Fire", by Denis Godfrey. Jonathan Cape. $3.

At the end of the recent war the R.A.F. found itself somewhat short of personnel. A determined drive for recruitment resulted in a service consisting of about 65 per cent national servicemen, or peace-time conscripted men. Former servicemen were invited to return to the fold, but few accepted the invitation.

To the veteran of any service there is something in this story which explains the present scarcity of troops. Those who were brought close to mutiny during the war are unlikely to welcome the opportunity of assuming the same conditions voluntarily in peacetime. This story depicts a group of "browned off" ex-servicemen in Ceylon. Veterans of the Burma and Singapore campaigns, they are awaiting the close of the war.

When the unit is taken over by an administration fresh from the parade grounds of Britain the troops

Children and adults under the guidance of selected Red Cross instructors learn principles of water rescue, life saving and artificial respiration.

CHURCH FETE PLANS ARE LAID

With Mrs. C. W. Leggett presiding, the regular meeting of the Salt Spring Island Woman's Auxiliary was held recently in the parish room, Ganges. It was opened by the singing of the W.A. hymn and the devotional period was taken by Mrs. G. H. Holmes and Mrs. Leggett.

The report read of the recent yard-side sale showed that over $50 had been realized for the funds of the organization.

The diocesan board will hold its monthly meeting in the Mahon Hall on Friday morning, June 18, and following a picnic lunch in the grounds of Harbour House will resume business in the hall, where tea will later be served by the W.A. members, with Mrs. Stuart Bannister and Mrs. A. W. Barber convening.

The W.A. voted $10 to the Dorcas committee towards purchasing materials to be made up for sale at the annual church fete, and with the same object in view, a material shower will be held at the next month's meeting.

To complete the patchwork quilt, squares for which the members have been working on for some time, a quilting bee will be held early in June at the home of Mrs. Edward Adams.

Mrs. C. W. Leggett, Mrs. W. M. Palmer and Mrs. Harold Price will represent the W.A. at the committee meeting, to make arrangements for the annual church fete to be held on August 4.

Tea hostesses were Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. F. H. Baker.

approach breaking point. The arrival of the W.A.A.F. unit creates the so-called "romantic interest".

The story is more interesting for its connection with the circumstances prevailing in the service today, than for its purely fictional aspect.—F.G.R.

Wise Gardener

Notes From Saanichton Experimental Station

Spraying of fruit crops becomes increasingly necessary. More time and thought has been given to the health of orchard trees, strawberries, loganberries and bush strawberries than ever before.

During the past week we have applied fungicides to pears and apples to control scab and an antibiotic (streptomycin) to control twig and spur blight, which is a bacterial disease.

At the same time insecticides were used to control mites, aphids and caterpillars, codling moth, saw-fly, apple-worm and apple-skeletonizer. Then currants and gooseberries received their second application of D.D.T. for control of the currant fruit-fly which is responsible for the maggoty fruits.

Tent caterpillars, found in the park and arboretum, gave up when sprayed, with D.D.T. Mildew on strawberries has required three spray applications this season, to keep foliage free.

Loganberries have had two sprays for mites, leaf-hoppers and leaf cane spot. Streptomycin has also been used as a possible control for dry-berry in logans and related crops.

These crops have all received one spray application during the past week and so little wonder that the average grower stands in awe as he faces the array of pests and diseases to be combated and then counts the costs in labor and cash for chemicals and their application. A grower is well advised to seek help with his spray problems from provincial or federal field men.

Transplanting

Transplanting is an exceedingly important garden operation, which, if done imperfectly may jeopardize the success of the crop, even though conditions may appear favorable. On the other hand, conditions of soil, texture and moisture may seem unfavorable, but if properly done, and subsequent conditions are favorable, successful crops will result.

If you examine a hand-operated transplanting machine, of the type in common use in this area, employing a reservoir for water and a tube through which the plant is dropped, you will note that when the lever is actuated, water is ejected around the plant.

When the planter is lifted up with jaws open the plant is left with water surrounding its roots. No provision is made for soil to be pushed back around the plant, and yet there is a very high percentage of "takes" with a machine such as this. Obviously the water is placed where most needed, around the roots. A tug at the plant after it has been set for two or three hours will convince one as to the effectiveness of transplanting.

This illustrates the advantage of puddling in plants. Where water is poured around the roots in this way, air is eliminated and the roots will

FLAKY COFFEE CAKES

Scald 2 1/2 c. cream, 2 tbs. granulated sugar, 1 tsp. salt and 3/4 c. shortening; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl 1/2 c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Add cooled cream mixture and stir in 3 well-beaten eggs. Stir in 2 c. once-sifted bread flour; beat until smooth. Work in 2 1/2 c. (about) once-sifted bread flour. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl and grease top of dough. Cover and set in a warm place free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Mix 3/4 c. granulated sugar and 2 tps. ground cinnamon; sprinkle half of this mixture on baking board. Divide dough into 2 equal portions and turn out one portion onto prepared board. Roll out into a 12" square; fold from back to front and from one side to the other. Repeat rolling and folding 3 more times, flouring board lightly if it becomes sticky. Seal edges of folded dough and place in a greased 8" square cake pan and pat out to fit the pan; butter top lightly and press walnut halves well into the dough. Sprinkle remaining sugar and cinnamon mixture on board and treat second portion of dough same as first portion. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in a moderate oven, 350°, 15 mins., while preparing the following syrup; simmer together for 5 mins. 1 c. granulated sugar, 1/2 tsp. grated orange rind, 1/4 c. butter or margarine and 1/2 c. orange juice. Quickly pour hot syrup over the 2 partially baked cakes and bake cakes about 15 mins. longer. Stand baked cakes on cake coolers for 20 minutes, then loosen edges and gently shake from pans.

That'll be a million dollars please

Imperial's shopping bill is more than $1 million a week... that's what we spend in Canada just for everyday needs. It doesn't include crude oil, which alone runs to $4 1/2 million a week! Nor does it include wages, salaries or taxes. What do we buy? Everything... from soup (to feed geological parties) ... to nuts (to fit a few million bolts) derricks dynamite and diesels and even catalytic cracking units ("cat crackers" they're called) to make those better gasolines. We buy things from 6,000 Canadian firms from coast to coast. Shopping on this scale creates a lot of work for a lot of people... right across Canada.

Dinner Marks New Hotel Season

A most successful dinner on Sunday evening, May 23, marked the opening for the summer season of that well known landmark on Salt Spring Island, Vesuvius Lodge.

From business firms and friends the management was the recipient of many good wishes for the occasion, accompanied by lovely baskets filled with early summer flowers.

About 100 sat down to the attractively appointed tables, arranged for parties of two, four or several more, and the proprietors of the re-opened hotel, Mrs. Margaret Warren and Mrs. Isabel Simpson, achieved a successful opening banquet.

Guests registered over the week at Vesuvius Lodge include: Mr. and Mrs. D. Esselmont, Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. L. Dickie, Mrs. G. Smith, Mrs. L. Lee, Mrs. Phyllis Hillan, Vancouver.

THE PROBLEM

... A DOCTOR'S VIEW

—By DR. T. F. WILKIE

This week the author is pleased to print a letter submitted by a doctor who was until recently engaged in active practice on the Gulf Islands, and who is still interested in island problems—Dr. D. A. Boyes, now of Vancouver:

"As a former resident of the Gulf Islands, I would like to add my comments to the many expressed lately regarding the hospital situation.

"That there is a need for a new hospital need not be discussed further. It was voted for at a public meeting. Those who continue to question this are forgetting that in a democracy, this is the way things are decided. The question of financing is the only problem unanswered.

"However it is done, it will cost a good deal and someone must pay. This is easy to forget. Each person should face this problem from his own viewpoint. There has been much discussion and many views aired, but still, only the individual really knows his own needs. He must decide himself how he can best pay his share in this venture. "The hospital board has shown one way of meeting this cost. Each person would pay according to his assets, over a specified period. Every man can and should find out how much he would pay under this plan, how much per year and how much in all. If he believes he will benefit directly to the extent of what he will be called upon to pay, then regardless of what other people think, it is a good thing for him.

"The problem need not be any more complicated than that. "I am (as many of you know) in favor of the project. I hope the people of the Islands will decide that they can see their way to going along with the hospital board's plan.

"Best wishes,
"D. A. BOYES, M.D."

MORE ABOUT RATEPAYERS

Association keeping 15 cents and sending 10 cents to the B.C. Association, so each member is, in effect, a paid-up member of the Ganges Association, the Island Association and the B.C. Association. Any taxpayer paid up or not can put a motion or second it, but only paid up members may ballot on the motion.

Each organization has two votes at the annual convention, the president and one delegate. Ratepayers should have some say in the finance and curriculum of the schools in this province, said Mr. Bonner.

He told of his visit to the minister of education who said that he would be pleased to receive representatives of B.C. ratepayers to serve in an advisory matter: that the department will also welcome suggestions on education and finance. The association tries to unify the efforts of the taxpayer and work to abolish taxes that work hardship on landowners.

From E. and N. land that is now being sold the B.C. government receives one-quarter of the amount paid for the land, therefore a million dollars land sales nets the B.C. government one-quarter million dollars. Mr. Bonner thinks that money could be used for provincial ferry slips. Quadra Island is getting a ferry slip from the provincial government and Salt Spring could, too, he urged.

Mr. Bonner suggested that a local organization be started. "Motion to form a ratepayers' association was moved by E. H. Haraway and seconded by F. Ross."

Dues of $1 for single members and $1.50 for married couples were accepted. Following executive was elected: president, T. Fowler; vice-president, W. Byers; treasurer, M. Gardner; secretary, E. H. Haraway. Executive includes: Vesuvius, Mrs. E. M. Jensen; Beaver Point, Don Fraser; Fulford, J. B. French; Walkers Hook, F. Hartree; Ganges, H. Caldwell.

There were 125 people present from all over the Island and $80.50 was paid in membership fees.

After the meeting was adjourned, the visiting speakers were entertained with refreshments before starting on their return journey.

Last year more than 11,000 people received instruction from qualified Red Cross instructors in B.C.

P.T.A. FUNDS IN HEALTHY STATE AT SALT SPRING

The regular meeting of the Salt Spring Island Parent-Teacher Association was held recently in the home economics room of the school with the president, Mrs. J. D. Reid, in the chair and 21 members present.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $345.67.

Mrs. E. H. Gear took over the convenship of the stall for the school sports day and it was voted that spoons be purchased for the sports and presented with the book prizes and class membership prizes on June 11.

In response to a request from Fulford, the May pole and ribbons were lent for the May 24 celebrations.

The sum of $50 was donated towards this year's graduation banquet.

Mrs. E. J. Ashlee and Mrs. H. Rogers were appointed nominating committee for the election of officers next month.

The president reported on "May Fair" by which $134 had been realized, and thanked the conveners, teachers, pupils, P.T.A. members and all who had contributed to the success of the day.

The pennant was again won this month by Grade 1, which also took the membership prize.

C. D. Nelsen acted as master of ceremonies for the social period devoted to music and bingo, after which coffee was served by Mrs. J. B. Foubister, Mrs. Cyril Wagg and Mrs. Art Young.

To mark the ninth birthday of the organization, the president lit the nine candles on the birthday cake and presented each member with a small corsage made up for the occasion by Mrs. Ashlee, Mrs. Reid and Mrs. M. White.

Donations Made To Islanders By Sunshine Guild

The regular meeting of the Guild of Sunshine was held recently in the board room of the Mahon Hall with Mrs. F. H. Newnham presiding and 11 members present.

A letter of thanks was sent to Mrs. N. Garrod for her gift of a wheel chair which was in turn presented by the guild to a grateful resident of the Island; to another person in need pyjamas were sent, and a donation of $10 was made to the local volunteer fire brigade.

Mrs. J. W. Catto had on view an assortment of materials to be made up for the fall sale of work and, for the same purpose, apron patterns

TWO RODENTS ARE DECEASED

(By Lyndon Campbell and Douglas Fraser)

Last week, Snitch and Snatch died. They got chilled during the night and quickly became ill. As they were not very healthy they had very little energy and soon died. Buttons and Beau caught the chill, too, but as they were healthy they survived. Buttons and Beau are still gaining weight although they didn't gain any weight the night they were ill.

This experiment has proven that you can starve in the midst of plenty, if it isn't the proper food. We will keep Buttons and Beau until the end of this week and then we will send them back to the animal nutrition laboratory.
